

Edison, Alice , Edison, George

Alice Edison July 1444
Corporal Alice Edison of the marine corps has returned to Camp Lejeune, North Carolina, after spending her furlough here with her mother, Mrs. Julia Edison Bryan. Corporal Edison was graduated from the local high school, Santa Rosa Junior college and the University of California. She is a classifying specialist at Camp Lejeune, where Private Winifred deNeuf and Private Barbara Dondero of this city are at present stationed. While here she called on the families of the two girls whom she met in camp, where they are receiving their "boot training."

* * *